

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Edward E. Netterberg has been employed at the Veterans Administration Medical Center in Fort Meade, South Dakota, as a social worker and, most recently, as the coordinator of the Day Treatment Program; and,

WHEREAS, Edward Netterberg is the State Coordinator of A.B.A.T.E. and has been active in this organization for eight years; and,

WHEREAS, Edward Netterberg has devoted his life to the betterment of his community, the caring and sharing with family and friends and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

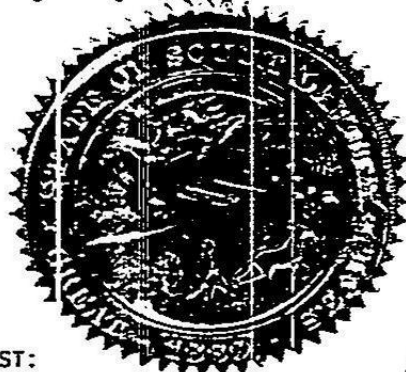

WHEREAS, Edward Netterberg is a devoted husband to his wife, Vickie, a good father to their four children and a loving grandfather to his ten grandchildren; and,

WHEREAS, On August 25, after 22 years of service to the Department of Veterans Affairs and with a total of 25 years employment with the federal government and this great state, Edward is retiring and taking time to travel:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 25, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I join his many friends, co-workers and relatives in wishing him good luck in the future.

ATTEST:

James Hazelstine
JAMES HAZELSTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixteenth Day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

George S. Mickelson
